April 29 and 30, 2018 in Goslar, Germany, in the Harz mountains

The scientific meeting "From the Witches Cauldrons in Materials Science 2018" takes place on April 29 and 30, 2018. We were again able to win excellent female scientists as speakers for the conference.

Invited speakers (in alphabetical order):

Prof. Dr. Nadja-Carola Bigall, Leibniz Universität Hannover

Prof. Dr. Silvia T. Ceyer, MIT, USA

Prof. Dr. Viktoria H. Däschlein-Gessner, Ruhr-Universität Bochum

Prof. Dr. Syuzanna Harutyunyan, Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, Netherlands

Dr. Andrea Knauer, Universität Ilmenau

Prof. Dr. Beatriz Roldan Cuenya, Fritz-Haber-Institut, Berlin

Prof. Dr. Concepió Rovira, Materials Science of Barcelona, Spain

The meeting is held jointly with the Graduate Research School 2226 “Chemical Bond Activation” (Oldenburg) and is also supported by the SFB 1083 “Structure and Dynamics of Internal Interfaces” (Marburg).

There is the possibility to present personal research in form of a poster. Deadline for registration and contributions is April 1, 2018.

The meeting will be held in the Harz mountains close to the city of Goslar (www.goslar.de), not far from the Brocken mountain (www.brocken-harz.de). The location is the Mönchehaus Museum (www.moenchehaus.de).
